

Dear Parents,

As part of an improvement in our communication of absences, we will from Monday 31st August 2009 be sending parents of Senior School children who are registered absent an automatic instant text message. This should ensure parents are contacted swiftly, but without having to answer the phone if in a meeting.

With every good wish,

Peter Brodie