19th April 2011

Dear Parents

SQA EXAMINATIONS 2011

Study leave for Fourth Year will be from Tuesday 3rd May to Monday 30th May inclusive and for Fifth and Sixth Year will be from Thursday 12th May to Friday 3rd June inclusive. Candidates with an exam before study leave begins are excused school on the day of the exam. Anyone with an exam falling after these dates will be excused until the day following the exam. All candidates should have received a copy of the examination timetable, but you should be aware that exams are scheduled for during the half term holiday as follows:

Friday 27 th May	Higher and Advanced Higher Drama General & Credit Craft and Design
Monday 30 th May	General & Credit Accounting and Finance Higher Physical Education

On those days school lunch will not be available. Candidates will be required to fulfil their commitments to sports teams during the examination period.

Candidates in the Fifth and Sixth Years who have a light examination load are encouraged to come in to school during study leave and be given work by those who teach them. Any pupil on study leave who comes in to school for any reason must wear school uniform.

Parents are asked to ensure that on the day of their children's return to school all textbooks are handed to the member of staff who issued them. During the remainder of term the Fourth Year will start their Higher courses, Fifth Year will start their likely Sixth Year courses and a programme of post-exam activities is organised for Sixth Year. There will also be a number of sporting and co-curricular activities taking place.

All candidates who activate their MySQA account will be sent their exam results by 9am on the morning of Thursday 4th August. Please note that this is the same day that paper certificates will be delivered. If you intend to move home prior to this date and would like the certificates delivered to a new address please inform me as soon as possible.

If a pupil is absent on the day of an exam please obtain a medical certificate and submit it to us as soon as possible.

All leavers should attend Prize-giving on Thursday 23rd June.

Yours sincerely
