Dear Parents,

Senior School Show Hot Mikado

Tuesday 29th November - Friday 2nd December

7pm in the Cargill Hall

The curtain rises on this years Senior School Show Hot Mikado from Tuesday 29th November until Friday 2nd December 2011 at 7pm in the Cargill Hall.

Based on The Mikado by WS Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan, the book and lyrics are adapted by David H. Bell, and the music adapted and arranged by Rob Bowman.

Picture a little town in Japan where flirting is punishable by death. Unsurprisingly its citizens are finding the law, rather, well...tiresome. They appoint Ko Ko, a lowly tailor, as Lord High Executioner, himself condemned for flirting and so not likely to execute anyone. Throw in the beautiful Yum Yum, her ardent admirer Nanki-Poo, errant son of the Mikado, and the man-eater Katisha, and you have one of Gilbert and Sullivans most famous comic shows in all its wonderful absurdity.

The original catchy score is given a contemporary feel with swing, jive and sassy songs, plus a little gospel and rhythm and blues thrown in for good measure.

Join us for an uplifting, shoe-tapping extravaganza!

Tickets: Adult £6 Student: £4
